

At left—G. L. Patterson, young Australian tennis star and champion of England, who is to play in this country. Above—Mrs. George W. Wightman, American woman champion, teaching her children how to play the way mother does. At right—Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen, the French girl who won the world's title for women.

Photo by Copyright, Underwood & Underwood Central News.

This is the most recent picture of Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderbilt, who has opened "Ochre Point" at Newport for the season.

Copyright, Underwood & Underwood.

Hazebrouck in Belgium suffered as much from the devastating blight of battle as any town in the war area, consequently the celebration of the signing of the peace treaty took on a more than usually solemn aspect.

Photo by Mirzoff.

Bride, bridesmaids and flower girls at the recent marriage of Miss Lanier Comly of Tuxedo Park to John Murray Mitchell. From left to right—Miss Annette Tilford, Miss Betty Elliott, Katherine Comly, Sally Comly, Mrs. Mitchell, Ellen Comly, Miss Renee Carhart and Miss Margaret Monell. The flower girls are sisters of the bride, who is the daughter of Major and Mrs. Gerrard Comly.

Photo by Davis & Sanford.

Mrs. Laurence Weber, a June bride, in her wedding dress. She was formerly Miss Sabina Larkin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Larkin of New York.

Photo by Davis & Sanford.